

A ART. FX-ATC01

B ART. FX-ATC02

The fighting Axe was designed by US designer "Mr. Sibert" under request of AMERICAN TOMAHAWK COMPANY which receiving specifications from US Special Forces for a new idea of fighting axe that can be used in extreme situations and that can be used also for throwing, and has been completely developed and manufactured by our company following their requirements. The Axes are very well balanced and the G10 handles increasing a lot of the grip performance. Easy to carry with the sheath that has been developed and created for their needs, these are very special tools that can help the end user in the field.

Blades:

Cobalt vanadium stainless steel N690Co HRC 58-60 length overall mm 463 (A) and mm 363 (B) thickness mm 5. Black matt Teflon coated.

Handle:

Composite G10 handle coarse texture. OD green or Black. Thickness mm 6 for each side.

Sheath:

Black or Green cordura with ALICE clips and belt loops for MOLLE system.